THE ORDER OF CANADA

The Order of Canada was established as the centerpiece of Canada's system of honours to pay tribute to those who exemplify the highest qualities of citizenship and whose contributions enrich the lives of their contemporaries. Only Canadian citizens are eligible to be members but honorary members can be non-Canadians who have served Canada. The Queen of Canada is the Sovereign Head of the Order and the Governor General is the Chancellor and Principal Companion. The Order has three levels: Companion, Officer, and Member.

COMPANION: (CC)

--For outstanding achievement and merit of the highest degree especially service to Canada or to humanity at large. A maximum of 15 Companions may be appointed in any one year with a maximum of 150 living Companions at any one time.

OFFICER: (OC)

--For achievement and merit of a high degree, especially service to Canada or to humanity at large. A Maximum of 46 Officers may be appointed per year (increased from 40 to 46 in 1983).

MEMBER: (CM)

--For distinguished service in or to a particular locality, group, or field of activity. A maximum of 92 Members may be appointed annually (increased from 80 to 92 in 1983).

Half of the annual quotas are appointed on January 1 of each year and the other half appointed on July 1 of each year. The date of appointment to the Order is the date the Governor General puts her signature of approval on the list and while this is done close to the January 1 and July 1 date, the actual date of appointment varies each year. Once the Governor General has signed the approval, the names are published in the Canada Gazette, Part 1 and it is that date that is used in these lists. There are no posthumous appointments or elevations. Once in a while, a person dies between the approval of the list and its publication in the Gazette but the Instrument of Award predates the individual's death. While most appointments are made in the two lists approved each year, individual awards can be made during the year. This usually happens in the case of somebody who has been recommended and may die if the approval is delayed. Examples of such appointments include Fernand Seguin, CC (elevated from OC to CC, The Right Honourable Bora Laskin, CC, PC, Honourable Ivan C. Rand, CC, QC, The Honourable Joseph R. Smallwood CC, PC, Terry Fox, CC, The Honourable William Ross MacDonald, CC, PC, CD, QC, Joseph Schull, OC, and Edward Arunah Dunlop, OBE, CM, GM. In other cases it is done to provide immediate recognition of an individual such as the elevation of Mr. Gaetan Boucher from CM to OC following his gold medal victories in the Winter 1984 Olympics.

Initially, the only Honorary Member of the Order of Canada (CM) made to date was in the Canada Gazette of 27 June 1981 of Mrs. Zena Sheardown. Her Husband along with three others had been made Members of the Order of Canada in the Canada Gazette entry of 5 July 1980. Mr. Kenneth Taylor was made an Officer of the Order in that list and wife, Mrs. Patricia Taylor, was made a Member of the Order of Canada in the full list published on 27 June 1981. These awards were made for services provided during the rescue of the American Embassy staff from Tehran, Iran, after the takeover of the American Embassy.

THE ORDER OF CANADA

Interestingly, Zena Kahn Sheardown is listed as a full Member of the Order of Canada in the Canada Gazette list of 17 January 1987. The rumour behind this Honorary Membership was that Mr. Sheardown, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor refused to accept their Order of Canada unless Mrs. Sheardown also received an equal award. But because Mrs. Sheardown was an American citizen at the time, she could not be made a full Member and thus became the first and only Honorary Member. The Government of Canada has resisted handing out the Order of Canada as an Honorary award to retain it as an important Canadian award. This extends to not admitting Prince Charles and Princess Diana to the Order, despite the fact that he will one day be the Sovereign Head of the Order. Thus, while this couple is among the most photographed in the world, they are often seen wearing the insignia of Australia (very nice) and the insignia of New Zealand (ugly), but never Canada. Not even Prince Phillip is a member of the Order of Canada or the Order of Military Merit and is frequently seen in Canadian military uniform wearing in addition to his British awards, Australian and New Zealand honours! However Canada now awards Honorary Officer - Order of Canada to ex-Canadians (all three awarded to end of 1998 were living and working in the United States) and one Honorary Companion - Order of Canada to Nelson Mandela.

The Order of Canada was created on the direction of Prime Minister Pearson (at that time OM, OBE and latter made a CC), as part of the celebrations for the 100th Anniversary of Canada in 1967. By instrument PC 1967-389 dated at the Government House at Ottawa, Thursday, the 2nd day of March, 1967 (Canada Gazette 29 April 1967), His Excellency The Governor General in Council (The Right Honourable Roland Michener) advised Her Majesty as Queen of Canada that Canada desired to create a society of honour in Canada to be known as the Order of Canada. Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories QUEEN, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith, signed the Letters Patent creating the Order. An advisory council consisting of the Chief Justice of Canada (Chairman), Clerk of the Privy Council, the Under Secretary of State, the Chairman of the Canada Council, the President of the Royal Society of Canada and the President of the Association of Universities and Colleges of Canada. The Secretary to the Council shall be the Secretary to the Governor General. The Council considers nominations for admission to the Order.

When created in 1967, there were two grades in the Order, Companion and the Medal of Service plus a Medal of Courage. The provision for each was as follows:

COMPANION (CC):

Made for merit, especially service to Canada or to humanity at large. There were to be 50 persons appointed in 1967 and 25 persons in any year thereafter but the total number of living Companions could not exceed 150 in addition to the Principal Companion.

MEDAL OF SERVICE (SM):

Made to any person for merit, especially service to Canada or to humanity at large. There were to be 100 persons appointed in 1967 and 50 persons per year after that with no maximum. Both of these levels could be given to non-Canadians as honorary members.

MEDAL OF COURAGE (CM):

Awarded in connection with the Order (therefore a part of the Order of Canada), to any person who, as a civilian or a member of an armed force or police force performs an act of conspicuous courage in circumstances of great danger. The medal could be awarded posthumously but the individual so honoured would not be a member of the Order.

The sequence for the wearing of these awards was to be: Victoria Cross, George Cross, Companion (Order of Canada), Medal of Service, and Medal of Courage before all others honours and awards. The date of July 1, 1967 was deemed to be the date of institution of the Order.

On 1 July 1972 (Canada Gazette 1 July 1972), The Governor General, the Right Honourable Roland Michener in his capacity as Chancellor and Principal Companion of the Order of Canada, and in accordance with the revised Constitution of the Order of Canada, dated 1st July, 1972, announced that every person to who the Medal of Service of the Order was awarded became on this date an Officer of the Order and entitled to have the letters OC in lieu of the letters SM, placed after his name on all occasions when the use of such letters is customary.

The new Constitution created the current three grades of the order. At the same time, the Order of Military Merit was created and the three bravery decorations, Cross of Valour, Star of Courage and Medal of Bravery were also created. The Medal of Courage had never been awarded as the Council found that the range of actions for which nominations for the Medal of Courage had been received were to divergent in their levels of bravery to be covered by one medal. The new Canadian Bravery Decorations did NOT confer membership in the order of Canada as the Medal of Courage had been intended to do. The advisory Council to the Order of Canada was increased by two members, who were appointed by the Governor General at this time.

The badge of the Order of Canada is a six-pointed snowflake. In the centre is a maple leaf with an annulus in red enamel which bears the motto DESIDERANTES MELIOREM PATRIAM (They desire a better country) surmounted by a St. Edward's Crown on the upper arm of the snowflake. The Companion's badge is 2 1/4" across, enamelled white, edged in gold with a red maple leaf. The Officer's badge is 1 7/8" across, enamelled white, edged in gold with a gold maple leaf. These two badges are neck badges. The Member's badge is 1 1/2" across, enamelled white, edged in silver with the maple leaf in silver. The members badge is worn with other medals.

All three badges have a ribbon, 1 1/2" wide with red edges and a 3/4" white centre. On the reverse of each badge is the word CANADA within a circle and a serial number in a box below. In undress, the ribbon is worn with a red, gold or silver maple leaf depending on the grade. The Medal of Service was a six pointed snowflake, 1 1/2" from point to point, silver in colour. In the centre of the medal is a Maple Leaf with the upper arm of the snowflake having a St. Edward's Crown. On the reverse was an annulus bearing the word SERVICE with the name of the recipient on the lower arm in two lines, initials on the first line for males and Christian names for females with the surname on the second line. It was worn on the breast with other medals. The ribbon was 1 1/4", red - white - red, the white being 5/8" wide. In undress, a silver maple leaf was worn in the centre. The Medal of Courage was identical to the Medal of Service except that it was gold in colour and had the word COURAGE on the reverse. In undress, a gold maple leaf would have been worn on the 1 1/4" ribbon.
