

ORDER OF NOVA SCOTIA ONS

15 July 2016

TERMS

The Order was established to honour Nova Scotians who are current or former long-term residents of the Province who do great good for their province and their communities. The arts, science, medicine, education and conservation are examples. The recipients may use the post-nominal letters O.N.S.

The award can be made posthumously but must be within a year after death. No sitting member of the legislature, the House of Commons, the Senate or a municipal council is eligible for the medal. Sitting judges also are excluded.

Selection is made by a council that includes the Chief Justice of Nova Scotia or a judge of the Nova Scotia Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia designated by the Chief Justice of Nova Scotia; a university president and a member of the Order and one other person appointed by the President of the Executive Council. One person is appointed by the Leader of the Opposition in the House of Assembly and one person appointed by each leader of a recognized party in the House of Assembly, other than the leaders previously named. All members of the Advisory Council must be a resident of the Province. The Minister of Tourism and Culture is responsible for management of the Order.

The Lieutenant Governor is the Chancellor of the Order (and a member for life) and the Order consists of the Chancellor and the individuals who become members of the Order pursuant to the Order of Nova Scotia Act. All former Lieutenant Governors living on the coming into force of this Act is a member of the Order for life.

DATE

The Order of Nova Scotia was announced and received first reading in the Nova Scotia Legislature on 28 March 2001. It came into effect in June 2001.

DESCRIPTION

A stylized Mayflower (the provincial floral emblem) bearing the shield of arms of Nova Scotia surmounted by a crown on the Obverse. Done in gold, white, blue, green and red enamels.

RIBBON

The 38 mm wide white ribbon has wide blue edges, a centre red stripe and thin gold stripes just inside the inner edge of the blue.
