

The Order Yukon OY

ORDER of YUKON (OY)

2024/04/21

Terms

The Order will be the highest honour in Yukon. It will recognize individuals who make exceptional contributions to Yukon and recognizes excellence, achievement and contributions to the social, cultural and economic well-being of Yukoners. The need to include contributions to First Nations cultural and heritage endeavours was noted in creating the award.

The Commissioner of the Yukon is the Chancellor of the Order and will be advised by a Yukon Advisory Council for the purpose of recommending membership in the Order and recommending the termination of membership in the Order. There will be a Secretary of the Order for the purpose of supporting the work of the chancellor.

There are no posthumous awards and Members of Parliament, MLAs, First Nations Chiefs and Councillors, Mayors and Councillor, and judges are not eligible while they are in office.

The members of the Advisory Council are set out in the Order of Yukon Act.

The Chief Justice is the Chair. Other members are the Speaker of the Yukon Legislative Assembly, President of the Yukon College, and the Cabinet Secretary.

The Council of Yukon First Nations will recommend a member and the Commissioner, as the Chancellor of the Order, will choose two other members.

The Advisory Council draws on people from significant social institutions in Yukon and from members of the public and First Nations community. This make-up provides for a broad view of who are deserving Yukoners.

DESCRIPTION

The multi-coloured crest of the Yukon sits on four petals of the Yukon's flower, firewood. The petals are a bright magenta outlined in gold.

OBVERSE

The multicoloured crest of the Yukon. The wavy vertical stripe on the shield stands for the Yukon River, the red triangles suggest mountains, and the gold disks refer to gold and other minerals. The Cross of St. George of England, plus the heraldic symbol for fur and the territorial flower (the fireweed), complete the coat of arms design. A silver Malamute dog surmounts the crest.

REVERSE:

Plain - numbered

MOUNTING

A small GOLD ring on the top of the medal has a larger oval GOLD ring pass through it. The ribbon passes through this larger ring. The medal is worn around the neck although a woman may wear it from a bow on the right shoulder.

RIBBON

The colours of the Flag of the Yukon:

¼ Green; ½ center white/ ¼ Blue.
