Major-General Michael Norman ROULEAU, OMM, MSC, CD Commander of Canadian Special Operations Forces Command

Born on the 4th of July 1967 into a military family, BGen Rouleau grew up in various locations including Montreal, Quebec City, Quetta Pakistan and Ottawa before joining the military in 1985. He was commissioned as a Field Artillery officer in 1986 and served Regimental tours in Valcartier, Quebec with 5e Régiment d'artillerie légère du Canada (5 RALC), and Lahr, West Germany with 1st Regiment, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery (1 RCHA) until 1992.

In 1994 he joined the ranks of a nascent Joint Task Force 2 (JTF 2) serving as Adjutant, Assault Troop Commander and Sabre Squadron Commander until 1999. In July 1999, MGen Rouleau retired from the Canadian Armed Forces and joined the ranks of the Ottawa Carleton Regional Police Service as an Emergency Response Officer; a job he cherished within a progressive police service for both its breadth and discretion. Owing to the events of 9-11, BGen Rouleau re-enrolled in the Canadian Armed Forces returning to JTF 2 as Chief Instructor in September 2002 then briefly as regimental Second-in-Command of 5 RALC in 2004/05.

After attending the Canadian Forces Command and Staff Course in 2005/06, MGen Rouleau commanded a Special Operations Task Force in Afghanistan in 2006/07. He assumed command of JTF 2 in May 2007, a position he held until June 2009. Upon completion of the Canadian Forces National Security Programme in 2010 and a variety of subsequent strategic level portfolios, BGen Rouleau served as the Canadian Joint Operations Command liaison officer to US CENTCOM HQ (Forward) in Jordan in 2013.

His has served at the strategic level include CDS Transformation Team 2 and Executive Assistant to the Army Commander. In June 2011, he was promoted to Colonel and appointed Director of Force Development to the Chief of Force Development at NDHQ in Ottawa. He then served as the Director of NATO Police with the Assistant Deputy Minister (Policy) Group.

Promoted to Brigadier-General, he was appointed the Commander of the Canadian Special Operations Group in February 2014.

Major-General Michael Norman ROULEAU, OMM, MSC, CD
Commander of Canadian Special Operations Forces Command

In 2017, Brigadier-General Rouleau was promoted (acting while so employed in early 2017 and substantive in July 2017) to the rank of Major-General and remained as the Commander of Canadian Special Operations Forces Command.

Major-General Rouleau pleaded guilty to one count of conduct to the prejudice of good order and discipline at his Court Marshal in October 2016 and was fined $2,000. According to a statement of facts read during the court martial, Rouleau and another officer were getting ready to visit a forward operating base after presenting several soldiers with medals when his rifle fired one round. The bullet hit the ground less than two feet from the other officer. The case stemmed from an incident in northern Iraq in December 2015 where 170 Canadian Special Forces are training Kurdish forces in the fight against ISIL.

BGen Rouleau has deployed on operations in the Balkans three times, as well as Africa, Afghanistan, and the Middle East. His decorations include the Governor General's Commendation (Sarajevo 92), Meritorious Service Cross (Afghanistan 07) and he was inducted as an Officer within the Order of Military Merit in 2013. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Manitoba, a Master of Defence Studies and a Master of Arts Degree in Security, Defence Policy and Management, both from the Royal Military College of Canada. He has been married for 25 years and has an amazing 20 year-old daughter (2017).

Colonel Robert Keith Chamberlain, MSC, CD
Chief of Staff 4th Canadian Division Headquarters

Colonel Chamberlain enrolled in the Canadian Forces as a private soldier in the Royal New Brunswick Regiment in 1983 and completed basic infantry officer training in 1985. After graduation from the University of New Brunswick with a BA (Joint Honours), he transferred to the Regular Force and on completion of artillery officer training in 1986, was posted to the First Regiment Royal Canadian Horse Artillery (1 RCHA) in Lahr, West Germany where he was employed in the standard gunline positions and as a “Z” Battery Forward Observation Officer (FOO) with the 4th Canadian Mechanized Brigade Group Reconnaissance Squadron.

His operational and command experience is varied. He has served in numerous regimental command positions at all levels from gun troop leader to commanding officer. His 12 years of regimental service include tours with the First and Third Regiments, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, in Shilo, Manitoba and Lahr, Germany including duty as Regimental Humanitarian Officer in Cyprus and as Battery Commander of both “J” and “A” Batteries, the latter including command of two batteries as part of the Regimental response to the “Flood of the Century” of 1997 in Manitoba and as the commander responsible for the Napierville area as part of the military’s assistance in Quebec for the Ice Storm of 1998.

From May 2001-2003, he was Commanding Officer of the First Regiment, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, including on Operation GRIZZLY, the Canadian Forces security operation for the G8 Summit, in Kananaskis, Alberta in June 2002. Under his command, the First Regiment also operated through a period of high tempo, generating “C” Battery for the 3 PPCLI initial deployment of Operation APOLLO in Afghanistan and “A” Battery for Operations PALLADIUM and ATHENA.. Deployed to Afghanistan in January 2007, he served as the Commander of the Kandahar Provincial Reconstruction Team (KPRT) until February 2008, a period of tremendous activity and sacrifice amidst an ongoing insurgency. His team oversaw the rapid expansion of new governance structures after Operation MEDUSA and the launch of more than 1,000 new projects in line with the Afghan-led “Kandahar model” of reconstruction and development. He guided a strong “whole of government” team during a critical period in the mission, increasing consultation and collaboration with local government departments and international organizations. He received the Meritorious Service Cross (MSC) for this deployment.

Colonel Robert Keith Chamberlain, MSC, CD

A graduate of the Combat Team Commander's Course, Canadian Land Forces Command and Staff College and the Canadian Forces College (CFC), Colonel Chamberlain has fulfilled various staff appointments at the operational and strategic level, including employment as the Army's force generation and sustainment staff officer for all international operations in the Middle East and Former Republic of Yugoslavia, as the Director Army Doctrine 7 (Firepower), as Directing Staff (Artillery) and Head of Land Studies at the Canadian Forces College, as the Director responsible for DND/CF Strategic Performance Management at National Defence Headquarters, and as the Canadian Expeditionary Force Command J35, Acting J3 and finally Deputy ACOS for South-West Asia. Promoted to colonel in March 2010, he was Director Peacekeeping Policy, served as Canadian Defence Attaché (Afghanistan) in 2012 and Chief of Staff at 4th Canadian Division/ Joint Task Force Central Headquarters. He is a graduate of the National Security Programme at CFC Toronto. He possesses a Masters of Public Administration from the Royal Military College of Canada (RMC) in Kingston. In 2015, Colonel Chamberlain assumed his current position as Chief of Staff of the Defence Renewal Team.

Colonel Chamberlain is an avid runner and loves most sports, but in particular hockey and basketball.
