USHAKOV MEDAL

The Medal of Ushakov was a Soviet military award created on March 3, 1944 by decision of the USSR. It was named in honour of Russian Admiral Fyodor Ushakov who never lost a battle and was proclaimed patron Saint of the Russian Navy. By Presidential Decree № 442 of March 2, 1994, the Soviet Medal of Ushakov was retained in the same basic design by the Russian Federation after the dissolution of the USSR. It was given to Canadian Sailors who served on the Mermansk Run.
